How can a language expert help you with your CDW and other liability claims?

Linguanauta:

Your Passport to the World

Helping Adjusters...

Not sure what "ref. pta. D.I." means in your claim from Latin America and your dictionary doesn't seem to help? Want to know if the driver is at fault? Maybe your client did accept insurance coverage from the rental company? What about those tourists in Barcelona carrying all their jewels, iPods, laptops, and cameras in a backpack that they left unattended on the floor? And what to do with those documents with regional expressions, language mistakes, and handwritten pages impossible to understand?

A language expert will help you with this and much more. In fact, a translation averaging $70-100 can save you thousands of dollars in just one insurance claim.

Let a professional linguist help you. And breathe easily.

Our Goal
